NEWS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Shiningbank Energy announces 2006 Canadian Income Tax Information

Shiningbank Energy Income Fund (the "Fund") provides the following information to assist its Canadian unitholders in reporting distributions received in 2006 from Shiningbank on their personal 2006 Income Tax Return ("2006 T1").

This information is based on Shiningbank's understanding of the Canadian Income Tax Act. Unitholders should consult their own tax advisor as to their particular tax consequences of holding trust units of the Fund.

During 2006, the Fund paid total distributions to unitholders of CS$3.05 per trust unit of which 85.06% is taxable and 14.94% is tax deferred.

Trust Units Held Within a Deferred Plan – RRSP, RPP, RRIF, RESP or DPSP

Unitholders holding their trust units in a Registered Retirement Savings Plan, Registered Pension Plan, Registered Retirement Income Fund, Registered Education Savings Plan or Deferred Profit Sharing Plan do not need to report any distribution income on their 2006 T1.

T3 Supplementary Form

Canadian unitholders who are holding their trust units outside of a deferred plan will receive a T3 Supplementary ("T3") slip. Registered unitholders will receive their T3 directly from the Fund's Trustee, Computershare Trust Company of Canada. If the trust units are held in a brokerage account, the T3 will be provided to the unitholder by the broker. The deadline for mailing all T3 slips to unitholders is March 31, 2007.

Trust Units Held Outside of a Deferred Plan

The taxable portion of distributions received should be recorded as "Other Income" on the 2006 T1. The tax deferred portion of distributions received is used to reduce the adjusted cost base of the trust units for purposes of calculating capital gains or losses upon disposition of the trust units. The following table outlines the breakdown of the taxable and tax deferred portions for each distribution paid in 2006.
